W.A.No. 183 of 2006

JUDGMENT: (per the Hon'ble Sri Justice B. Prakash Rao)

Heard the learned counsel on either side and at their request the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal at the stage of admission.

The appellant, who is working as Conductor in the respondent-Corporation, seeks to assail the order dated 19.07.2005 of the learned Single Judge dismissing W.P.No.1989 of 2003 filed by her as against the orders of transfer, mainly on the ground that the transfer is beyond the unit i.e. the region which is not permissible.

The learned Single Judge, following the decision of this Court in W.P.No.21343 of 2003, dated 20.06.2005, dismissed the writ petition.

Having heard the learned counsel on either side and having perused the material on record, the main grievance of the appellant appears to be against the order of transfer, which is only incidental to the services. Though the appellant is a lady, that itself is not a ground to take any special advantage. However, if at all there are any practical reasons, it is always open for the appellant to make a representation to the competent authority, pointing out the difficulties. On receipt of such a representation, the same shall be considered and disposed of in accordance with law. We do not find any merits in the appeal.

Subject to the above, the writ appeal is dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.
